RHYTHM & STORIES

TOWN SQUARE

INFORMATION HUB - Find out all the latest updates & pick up your guide to WF4All Summer Starts Here - a free programme of events taking place across the borough this summer.

POP-UP LIBRARY - Walthamstow Central Library will host a pop-up library with story-telling and a craft session where children can design a triangle to add to our jubilee bunting that will be displayed afterwards in the library.

CIRCUS - A cabaret-cirque trio will be giving a variety of performances throughout the day as well as circus skills and dance workshops suitable for kids. Big kids are also welcome!

FACE PAINTING (small fee will be charged)

TOWN SQUARE STAGE

1PM ANGEL TARPOV is a Bulgarian New Yorker who plays a huge range of music on his cello - regulars to Walthamstow will probably have heard ANgel playing his cello to entertain and sooth shoppers at the market.

1.40PM CHRISTINE CATELAN a classically trained singer originally from Marseilles (France), Christine will be singing Opera on both the Town Square and Café stages.

2.20PM JOHN ARTHUR is a local singer-songwriter performing his own songs on acoustic guitar (one about Walthamstow too) that range from pop-psychedelia to whimsical.

3PM NATURAL VOICES This funky mixed, community choir takes the stuffiness out of choirs! All original vocal arrangements by founder Lizzy Renihan.

3.40PM UKULELE 17 Walthamstow's very own community ukulele band will be playing a variety of pop songs and old favourites that you will definitely want to sing along to!

4.20PM JOE FRANCO is a guitar player and Walthamstow resident playing a range of guitar-driven classics, with strokes of Blues, Rock and Jazz on both the Town Square and Café stages.

5.10PM SINGOLOGY CHOIR is all about well-being and of course, performance! Expect a huge range of genres including, soul, gospel pop and musical theatre. Escape the stresses of modern life with a community choir - and you might even consider joining one of their choirs too.

5.50PM X7EAVEN The award winning X7eaven Academy will be bringing a refreshing and enlightening performance that explores the history of black classical musicians, through the medium of performing arts. "Reset your mind" is a pulsating, motivating performance piece that will showcase east London's incredible talented young performers. (also appearing earlier on the Main stage).

RHYTHM & STORIES TENT

CURATED BY: MBILLA ARTS CIC AND STORIES & SUPPER

A full day of performance and workshops showcasing music, song and storytelling from around the world. Introduced by MC Patrick Evans.

MBILLA ARTS CIC Established in 2006 by Gambian musician Seneke Sillah and arts educator Chantelle Michaux to promote education and performance programmes in African performing arts.

STORIES & SUPPER Launched in Waltham Forest in 2017 by Rebecca Tully & Helen Taylor to bring refugees, people seeking asylum and local residents together, to challenge some of the negative stories about migration.

INCLUDING: 12.45PM SOMOS CHIBCHAS & MBILLA ARTS

Somos Chibchas Arts is a dance group dedicated to showcasing and sharing the way of Colombian culture and folklore. The parade and presentation that will kick off the event in the Town Square today incorporates live djembe drumming led by Seneke Sillah.
